GOSPEL

John 20:1-9

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still day, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "they have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that had to rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

MISSION STATEMENT

With the Holy Spirit pouring the love of God into our hearts, we invite people to Christ by living like Christ through prayer, service, and learning.

God is able to renew creation and to give us new life! Alleluia! We have walked 40 days of Lent. We have practiced and prepared for this day. We were not perfect in our prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Yet hopefully we opened ourselves enough to allow Jesus to lift us to a new place. The old order of power and control has lessened and we walk into the new order of life in the Resurrected Christ. We look backwards and see the hand of God leading and guiding us. We look forward and we are full of hope. Our walk will not be full of successes, rather full of the meaning we find in the Risen Christ.

Alleluia,

Father John

An Easter Message... Often we miss the very meaning of the Easters that we are dealing with in our own lives, in our own time. Easter is the feast that gives meaning to life. It is the feast that never ends. After Easter, the tomb stands open for all of us to enter. If Jesus is risen, then you and I have no choice but to go into the tomb, put on the leftover garments ourselves, and follow Jesus back to Galilee where the poor cry for food and cripples cry to be taken to the pool and the blind wait for the spittle on their eyes to dry. All the fidelity in the world will not substitute for leaving the tomb and beginning the journey all over again. Today. Every day. Always.

Joan Chittister, OSB

Heavenly Father, may we grow closer to Christ through our support of the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal. We thank you, Lord, for Your many blessings You have bestowed upon us. We cherish the gifts of time, talent and treasure that each member of our universal Church family makes to build up Christ's Church in love. We ask you, Lord, to send us forth in this spirit of love to serve our communities and our world with open hearts.

Amen

TODAY'S READINGS

Easter Sunday
March 31, 2024

First Reading:

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)

Second Reading:

If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. (Col 3:1)

Gospel:

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20:9)
